FOREWORD

"The happier the time, the quicker it passes."
The hours went fast at George Washington—hours of work and play that we all want to remember. Because all of us, at some time, like to recall the past, the Senior Class of 1941 has turned back the clock in order that we may enjoy a pleasant recollection of the friends we made, of the teachers who guided us, of our enjoyable classes, and of our many interesting activities, as they came through the hours of study and comradeship at George Washington High School.

DEDICATION

BECAUSE of her spontaneous manner and sense of humor, her friendly smile, her thoroughness and excellence in teaching, her patience with the students and sincere interest in their welfare, we, the Senior Class of George Washington High School, dedicate the 1941 Compass to Mary Frances Rowe Varner.

Mrs. Varner reading over the school page in the Gazette.

Mrs. Mary Frances Rowe Varner

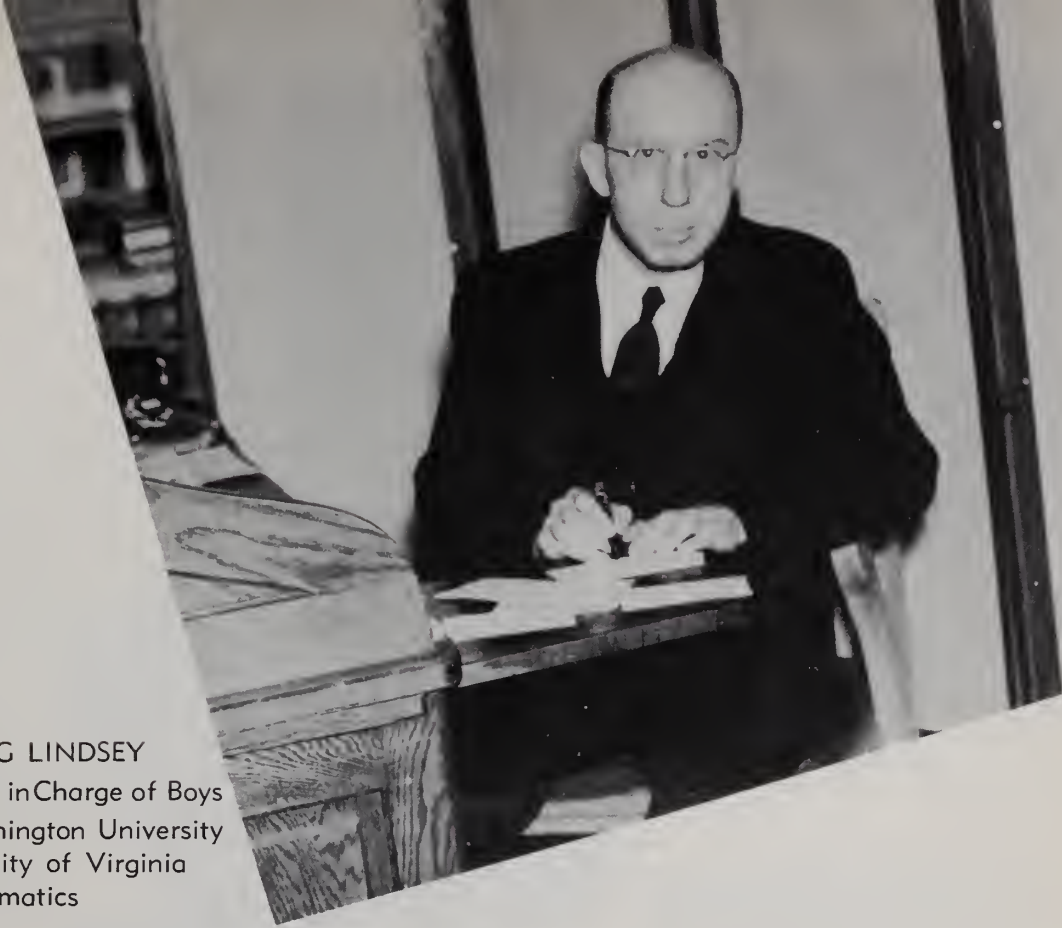

Principal . . .

MR. HENRY T. MONCURE
B.A., M.A., William and Mary College

In European society for centuries there has been a tradition that birth determines one's status in society. Of late, dictators have set the pattern. The American way depends upon inventiveness, ingenuity, ability, and hard work. Your school has tried to teach the American way.

SPRING SEMESTER COUNCIL

The student council is a governmental system organized by the students. In former years, as well as in the present, this organization has formed rules and laws for the students to follow.

The council has other duties besides the making of laws. It approves all school activities, and the members discuss important matters concerning the school at the meetings.

The council is supervised by the principal, Mr. H. T. Moncure, and two advisers, Mrs. Genevieve Brown and Mr. William Hillman.

The Honor and Discipline Committee, a division of the council, disciplines students who have not followed laws made by the council.

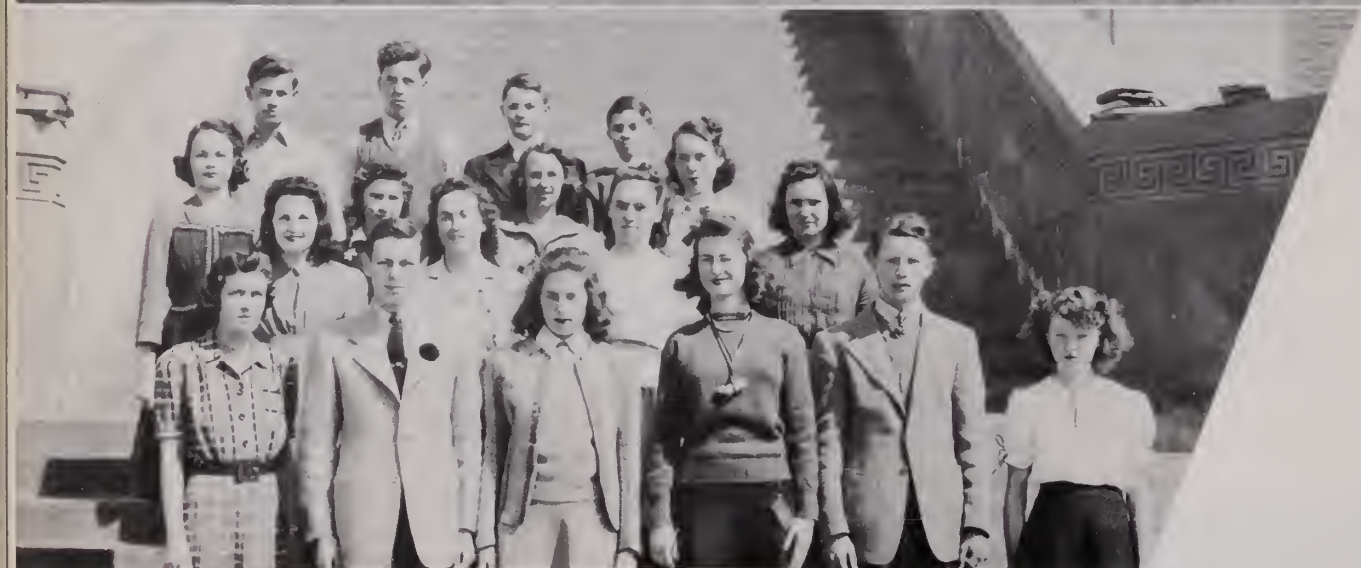

The monitorial system of the school is also sponsored by the council.

This year's members had a most important duty in the spring when the State Student Government Association met at G. W. Dabney Waring, president of the local student government, is also president of the state organization.

The purpose of the Biology Club is to provide purposeful activity for those pupils who are studying, or who have studied, biology and who wish to continue their study. Students in the club acquire a greater understanding and increase their knowledge on certain phases of biology.

The club consists of forty-five members, and the meetings are held every other Wednesday in room 310.

Many different programs were carried on at the meetings this year. For instance, at one meeting a spelling bee took place. This contest consisted of words pertaining to biology. Also, at one of the meetings, a quiz was held. The questions and answers for this quiz were selected from the study of biology. "Do You Know?" was another type of program carried on by this club. At another meeting reports on famous men of science were given.

During the spring season, the members of this club carry on many of their activities outside the building. They make a study of plant-life and use this information to aid them in placing shrubs and plants on the school ground. These shrubs are planted and cultivated by the pupils.

Much experience is derived from their study.

ARTS AND CRAFTS CLUB

The Arts and Crafts Club was organized to discover and develop individual talent in the different phases of art. Since its organization, there has been a steady increase in membership.

Under the direction of Miss Bertha Noble the club has made progress in creative art and through her instruction the members have found their work both beneficial and enjoyable.

In order to be a member of the club a student must have certain qualifications. He must submit acceptable work to an art committee before being eligible to join the organization.

This year the club has aided in the work of the Compass and in the advertising of the school plays and dances. It is with appreciation that we remember the Art Club for its part in making the artistic arrangements for the Football Banquet; such as, the place cards, decorations and posters.

The art classes and Art Club are cooperating in planning an assembly in May to show the work done in the various fields of art.

The members have painted in water colors and oils, modeled in clay, done sketchings of all kinds, ventured in modern art, made mural paintings, and are planning a puppet show.

CHEER LEADERS

PEP CLUB

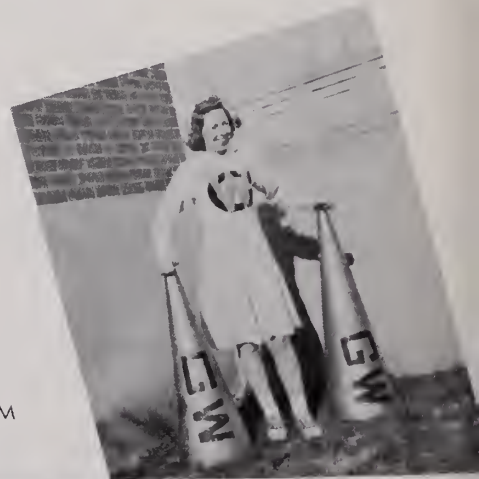

The Pep Club, sponsored by Miss Charlene Lynch and Miss Irma DeVault, consists of the entire student body. When a student signs the register in the George Washington High School, he automatically becomes a member of the Pep Club.

The purpose of this club is to stimulate the highest school spirit among the students.

Every year, the Pep Club sponsors the Football Banquet and Dance for the purpose of awarding school letters and jackets.

The club meets the first and third Tuesdays of each month. The meetings are carried on in Spanish, and the members answer the roll with a Spanish proverb. This year the students opened the meetings with the Pledge of Allegiance to the flag and sang "America" in Spanish. The programs and club activities are entertaining and educational. The members have heard the opera "Carmen" by recordings and have visited the Pan American Building in Washington, D.C. several times.

The picture appears in the year book, the students enjoy a Christmas party in the winter and a delightful outing in the spring. All of this is taken care of by the monthly dues.

The membership of the club consists of students who are taking Spanish two, three, and four, and those who have completed the Spanish courses at G. W.

The club is noted for the loyalty expressed in it, and for the harmony and cooperation shown in all activities.

The purpose of the club is to find the fun which the ancient Romans enjoyed in their everyday life and to appreciate these Romans as real people.

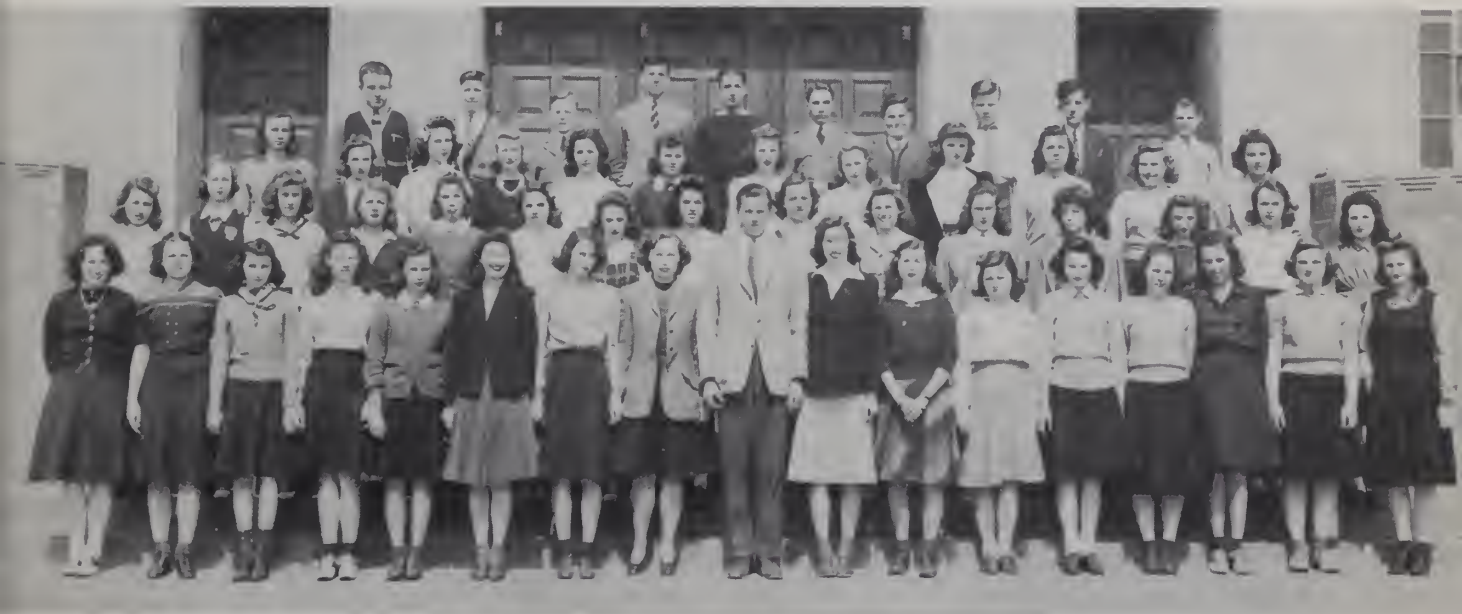

Meetings of the club are held twice a month and at each meeting interesting programs are planned for the entertainment of the students. These programs are based on the life and customs of the early Romans.

This past semester a session of Latin-American music and dances was enjoyed by the members of the club, as well as a fashion show of old Roman costumes. Then, too, the annual picnic was held in the spring, at Great Falls.

Many of the students entered the annual Latin Tournament which was held at Episcopal High School in April.

The students who are eligible for membership in the club must be those who are now taking Latin or those who have completed the Latin classes offered at G. W.

Monthly dues are paid to enable the club to have a page in the school year book.

The French Club, or Le Cercle Francais, sponsored by Mrs. Genevieve Brown, had a full year with many interesting activities as highlights.

The members of the club bought a French flower calendar and a scrapbook for keeping articles on Vichy and other parts of France and stories of French styles and people. A large table was made in the woodworking shop, purchased by the club, and used as a place for the scrapbook and other pamphlets. This greatly improved the appearance of the room.

At a club meeting, a special musical program was presented. French recordings, including native songs and arias from the opera "Carmen", were played.

The students also went to the French movie, "The Baker's Wife," shown at the Little Theatre. An annual picnic was financed by the left-over dues.

Janet Watson, a member of the club, won first place in the state for her translation of an editorial entitled "France de Juin," from the "Voici" magazine and received a French book from the editor as first prize. Contestants were also sent to the French contest held at Episcopal High School in the spring.

A third-year French class was added this year, and many students took part.

The purpose of the Commercial Club, sponsored this year by Miss Ruby Crumley, is to further the interest of the students in the Commercial Department through worthwhile programs and projects. All students taking at least one commercial subject are eligible for membership in the club. The club provides an opportunity for practical application of the subjects offered in the department. This year, for the first time in the club's history, the members have had attractive pins.

The meetings of the club, which are held twice a month, feature talks by people prominent in the business world, including teachers in outstanding business colleges.

One of the activities of the club is to edit its paper, "Commercial Chatter," which is written by members of the club. In this publication, the students obtain experience in stencil-cutting, and in the use of the mimeograph and the mimeoscope. This paper is published once a month and contains articles of interest to the students in the Commercial Department.

This year, the commercial students took part in a state-wide commercial contest sponsored by Mary Washington College in Fredericksburg, and several members of the Commercial Club were entered. This contest included participation in shorthand, typing, business information, bookkeeping, personality, and handwriting events.

LIBRARY CLUB

PURPOSE

The purpose of the Library Club is to encourage reading; to stimulate students in the use of the library and its services; to encourage home libraries; to instruct students and to assist in the daily library routine; to add to the volume and content of the library through beneficiary activities of the organization.

ACTIVITIES

Almost all members of the Library Club are student assistants in the library. In daily activities, they assist in mechanical and clerical routine necessary in the library. Members assist in unpacking, checking and stamping new books. Arrangements for bulletin boards and book cover displays are done with the assistance of the librarian. Field trips are made to nearby libraries. Speakers are invited to club meetings. The club cooperates with the city librarian. Several times during the year a Library Club Bulletin is printed for circulation in classrooms, made up of student work.

The Homemaking Club, now under the combined supervision of Mrs. Mary Parker and Miss Virginia Dix, was started in 1937 and has been one of the most popular clubs in George Washington since its organization.

Due to the large membership, the club is divided into three groups which meet every Tuesday, Wednesday, and Friday. Members of this organization have contributed generously to the Red Cross. Many articles of children's clothing and skirts and sweaters have been made and turned over to the Red Cross headquarters in Alexandria.

ASSISTANTS

Marguerite Vaughn, Elaine Clark, Doris Lanham, Dorothy Ladue, Wilna Blackwell, Cecil Spaulding, Wilmer Werner, Nancy Lee Tucker, and Mary Malcolm.

This yearbook contains the efforts and work of the Compass Staff for the past year to give to the students of George Washington High School a printed memory of their school year of 1941.

Billy Barry, editor; Virginia Jones, associate editor; Frank King, subscription manager; and Douglas Schooley, advertising manager have led their divisions of the staff to the completion of this book.

The staff is divided into the following divisions: the photography staff, headed by Arthur Hall; the literary staff, with Anita Shapiro, as activities editor, Beverly Bevans as sports editor, and Cecil Spaulding and Douglas Schooley, as cadet editors; and the art staff with Billy Deeton as head.

COMPASS STAFF

Dorothy Ladue and Mary Malcolm were the much-in-demand typists. Doris Lanham, Marguerite Vaughn, Elaine Clark, and Wilna Blackwell proved to be of invaluable help in doing the important routine work so necessary in getting up a yearbook.

The annual staff would like to express its appreciation to the English VII and VIII classes who wrote many of the senior epigrams and to the Journalism classes for their club write-ups.

Miss Mary Thomas Rawls has been the constantly working adviser, assisted by Miss Thelma Maddox who was in charge of the photography staff. Miss Bertha Noble supervised the art section, and Miss Unis Woodward, the literary section. Mr. Irving Lindsey was in charge of the all-important finances.

The Monogram Club is made up of boys who have earned a monogram in one of the four sports in G. W.

The purpose of the Monogram Club is to bring the athletes of the school and the alumni closer together, and to promote better sports. Every year the monogram owners and the alumni boys get together and have a sports field day. By doing this the graduates have a chance to participate in their favorite games.

The Monogram Club has its officers and holds a weekly meeting every Wednesday. During the meetings the boys have a chance to get better acquainted off the field. Some of the players never meet on the fields nor in school due to seasons and classes, but in their meetings all athletes in school are assembled together.

The club has held several successful social events, the proceeds of which have been used to buy additional equipment and monograms. The Monogram Club Dance which was one of the biggest of the year earned enough to buy an ultra-violet ray lamp and a rubbing table for the athletes, in addition to blue and gold football jackets.

VARSITY FOOTBALL

Dropping a 14-0 decision to the Little Generals of Washington and Lee in their annual Thanksgiving Day clash, the Blue and Gold gridiron warriors drew the curtain on the third season under Coach "Rasty" Doran, inscribing into the books a record of three victories, six defeats and one tie.

September 20. G. W.—14, Fredericksburg—0. Home

September 28. G. W.—7, Western—7. Home

The locals upset the dope in this one, forcing the Red Raiders to stage a second half spurt to earn a tie with an inspired Blue and Gold eleven.

October 5. G. W.—7, Newport News—20. Away

Journeying down-state to open the 1940 conference race, the Presidents came away on the short end of a 20-7 score, dealt by the powerful Typhoons.

October 11. G. W.—7, Petersburg—19. Home

Returning to home territory, the superior power of Petersburg proved too much for the courageous G. W. squad, 19-7 being the final count.

October 19. G. W.—0, Maury 20. Away

A stubborn defense was not quite enough to stop the power-house Norfolk eleven, who chalked up their third conference win at the expense of G. W.

October 25. G. W.—12, Lynchburg—19. Home

November 1. G. W.—12, Charlottesville—6. Away

A revamped local squad chalked up their lone win in the '40 state race at Charlottesville, nipping Lane 12-6.

November 8. G. W.—7, Gonzaga—6. Home

The gridmen captured their second straight triumph in the "Knut Rockne Memorial" game, as the Washingtonians were humbled, 7-6.

FOOTBALL

November 15. G. W.—0, Hopewell—12. Home

The local eleven closed their conference schedule, bowing to Hopewell 12-0.

November 15. G. W.—0, Washington & Lee—14. Away

Nearly 10,000 fans jammed the Arlington arena to witness the sixth annual renewal of the G. W.-W. & L. grid feud and saw a fighting Alexandria eleven go down to defeat before the superior Little General forces.

With only seven lettermen returning from last year's squad, Coach Doran faced the problem dreaded by every mentor in the land, that of rebuilding practically an entire new machine from green material, with a few veterans as a nucleus. As three members of the 39's starting backfield, Williams, Taylor, and Herrell, were missing when practice began in September, he had to experiment in the backfield with converted linemen, material for the forward wall being a lot more plentiful. As a result Shelton and Hanback, ex-guards, were molded into backfield men, with "Tweet-sie" Chisolm and Sam Fones, varsity newcomers, completing the quartet. This lineup, however, was frequently revamped throughout the course of the season, being supplemented by Crump, Dove, Foltz, Mumford, Bell and Daniels. The line was subject to change occasionally though not with the frequency of the backfield. Hicks, Berkow, Dudley, Clift, Grimm, Bourne, and Sult, were the usual starters, but Hinken, Vos, Deeton, and Crouch all saw varsity action.

Prospects for 1941 are not too dim for the twenty-one letter-winners. Ten will report for practice in September, as will several promising candidates from the junior varsity. So hats off to the past; coats off to the future for a winning G. W. eleven.

Using the famed Notre Dame "T" the Jayvees, under Coach Willis Benner, marched to four wins in their six game schedule.

Anacostia was the first victim which fell under the junior varsity's schedule, being soundly beaten 21-7. Central, however, the next opponent, was not another Anacostia for the Centralites handed the boys in Blue and Gold a 12-6 defeat in a nip and tuck battle.

Running up a 45-0 score against Tech in their following contest the boys compensated their defeat and when they downed Fredericksburg the following week, 42-6, they were acclaimed heroes.

A return game with the Yellow Jackets was scheduled for the ensuing week and the Jayvees traveled to James Monroe and handed them another trouncing 12-6.

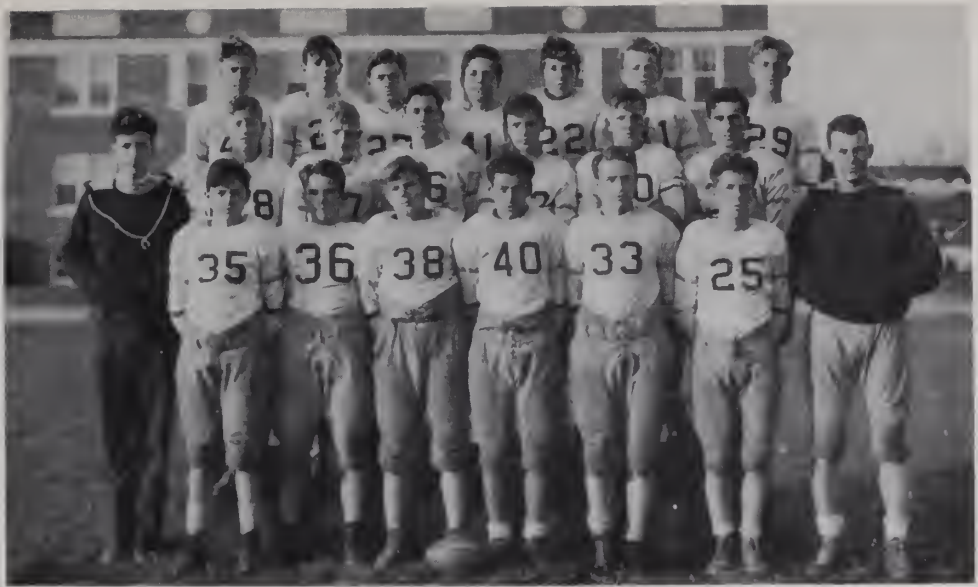

JUNIOR VARSITY

CAKE TEAM

Joseph Gardner, Donald Hardester, James Forbes, Henry Lanum, Milton Robey, Allen Glass, Leo McGuire, Quinlan Hancock, John Alfriend, Robert Vozzola, Jack London, William Bradley, Otis Nolan, and Walter Mills.

The idea of the G. W. "Cake" team is not to win games, but to get the boys familiar with the high-school system of football and to prepare them for the varsity squad.

The cake team members are limited to freshmen and sophomores. The chances of the team were somewhat handicapped because of this limitation, but with the material available the "cake" team made a good showing during 1940. The lack of equipment also has handicapped the team to some extent, but the boys made the best of it.

In the 1940 season the "cake" team played three games, and lost two of them. These included one game with the Boy Scout team with the score 40-0 in favor of the scouts and two games with the Virginia Juniors. The team was victorious in one of its games with the Virginia Juniors with a score of 19-6. The boys lost the other game by a score of 12-0. The manager of the team is Eugene Olmi. Coach Zimmerman has high expectations for the "cake" team next year.

VARSITY BASKETBALL

With new faces largely comprising the 1940-'41 squad, the local cagers completed their schedule with a record of eight wins and fifteen defeats.

Although the team was somewhat of a disappointment, the loss of Captain Amos Clift and "Tweetsie" Chisolm, in January, was a severe blow and an important factor in the Presidents' mediocre showing. As only one letterman, Johnny Shelton, was available for the entire season, as in football, Coach Doran had to build a varsity team from members of last years Jayvee five and some inexperienced boys.

The squad was unpredictable throughout the entire year, winning, then losing, but never playing consistent ball.

The conference debut was a carbon copy of last year's championship quintet, as the locals dropped the opener to T. J. and then won from Hopewell. This, however, was destined to be G. W.'s lone conference win, with the exception of a surprise triumph over Petersburg late in the year. The highlights of the schedule were the double triumphs over St. John's and the two victories over Fredericksburg.

As eight lettermen are expected to return for next year's campaign, Coach Doran hopes to build a winning ball club for the 1941-1942 season.

The purpose of the Junior Varsity basketball team is to familiarize the players with the high school system and to develop possible material for the varsity team.

As soon as a player develops his skill and shows his ability, he is transferred to the varsity team. Naturally, as the varsity men leave school, "Jayvees" with promise are moved into the vacant positions.

The requirements for the Junior Varsity are that the student pass three out of four subjects and, of course, he must be interested in basketball.

The Presidents' baseball team had five veterans returning to this years' squad. These were Shelton, Foltz, Higgins, Downey, and Denitto. Murnane and Clift graduated leaving large gaps to be filled this year.

In 1940 the baseball team won five and lost six games, but a better average was expected at the beginning of the 1941 season. Besides the veterans coming back, Coach Doran had many candidates out for the team who worked hard to fill the shoes of the graduated players. Some of these boys were Herrick, Campbell, Crump, Sult, Stewart, Kennedy, and Funkhouser. These boys were depended upon to make a successful team and season for George Washington.

FIELD AND TRACK

The 1941 track team, ably coached by Mr. Benner, had five veterans back this year to form the nucleus for the team. Captain Courtney Renshaw, Jack Crump, Fred Marsh, Billy Bell and Henry Grimm made up the five players returning.

Grimm and Feagans took part in the field events, Grimm hurled the discus and threw the shot and Feagans threw the javelin. Renshaw and Marsh ran the dashes. Crump was a pole vaulter, high jumper and a dash man, and Bell was also a pole vaulter. Many other candidates for the squad worked to earn their letters this year.

Letter men who were missing this year were Brown, Block, Bourn, Reece and Atkins. These boys helped G. W. have a successful season last year.

The tentative schedule when the Compass went to press was:

Central District Meet in Richmond
Tech High School at G. W.

Woodrow Wilson and Montgomery-Blair
at G. W.

Calvin Coolidge and Fairfax at G. W.
Washington and Lee at G. W.

GIRLS VARSITY HOCKEY

The field Hockey team, coached by Miss Vivian Woodard, had a very successful season this year. The girls were undefeated, winning three games, and tying two. The tied game was with their most bitter rival—the Hyattsville team in Maryland.

The complete schedule was as follows:

Oct. 14—G. W., 4; Rockville, 0

In the first game of the season the girls exhibited excellent team work and skillful handling of sticks throughout both halves.

Oct. 22—G. W., 2; Hyattsville, 2

This was an exciting game and the Hyattsville girls proved to be real competition.

Oct. 24—G. W., 4; Rockville, 0

Again the G. W. lassies defeated Richard Montgomery of Maryland with the same score, 4-0.

Nov. 7—G. W., 3; Montgomery Blair, 0

Nov. 14—G. W., 0; Hyattsville, 0

The last game was the most outstanding and was packed with the most thrills because both teams were out to win after tying a few weeks previous. Neither team had scored as the final whistle blew ending the game, and a successful season.

FIELD HOCKEY TEAM

GIRLS VARSITY BASKETBALL

The George Washington Lassies opened their basketball season by defeating Montgomery Blair of Maryland. This marked the beginning of a four-game winning streak before they were defeated by Falmouth.

The team was invited to spend the day of the scheduled game with James Monroe High of Fredericksburg, at Mary Washington College. They visited various classes, were guests at dinner, and "topped off" the day by defeating the Fredericksburg girls.

Invited to play in the Star Tournament, the G. W. Sextet was eliminated in the semi-finals in a heart-breaking game, losing by only one point to Mount Rainier, an undefeated Maryland team. This team was previously victorious over the locals by the same margin.

Coached under the capable direction of Miss Vivian Woodard, and captained by Anita Devers, the G. W. lassies finished a successful season of eight wins and four losses. Evelyn Fitzgerald, Jane Keller, and Gloria Gardner assisted the team as scorers and timers.

THE CADET CORPS

At the beginning of the September term, the promotion order was issued. Ronald Sisk was appointed lieutenant-colonel of the Corps and Kyle Barnhill, captain of the Auxiliary Unit. Fall found the Corps busy getting back into step. While the cadets were occupying spare moments ushering at football games, the auxiliary helped sell tickets for an American Red Cross benefit horseshow at the Lord Fairfax Country Club, and acted as usherettes at the January commencement.

In February when the mid-term promotion order was issued, Delaney Kopp was appointed lieutenant-colonel to succeed Ronald Sisk, and Kyle Barnhill, was made major of the Auxiliary Unit. Colonel Kopp, having to leave the Corps, was succeeded by Billy Payne.

All companies participated in the dedication of the World War I memorial on November 11, 1940, the George Washington Birthday Parade, the Army Day Parade on April 5, and the Winchester Apple Blossom Festival on May 2. During Easter week the entire corps assisted the First Lady of the Land at the annual White House Easter Monday entertainment. One of the year's highlights was the Valentine Dance, which was successful socially and financially. The climax of a year of intensive drilling and preparation was the annual competitive drill with Washington & Lee, and the year ended in a blaze of glory with the Cadet Banquet and Military Ball.

The rifle team made great strides during 1940-41. It traveled to V. P. I. to fire a three-way match and competed in many other matches, among which were the Hearst Trophy Match and the Third Corps Area Match. This year saw the formation of a junior rifle team.

The Cadet Corps is proud to point out that promotion standards have been raised. Every cadet wearing the uniform of an officer is a student maintaining a good scholastic average. To hold a commission in the Corps, one must have passed all subjects, therefore, an officer is not merely a good cadet but a good student, as well.
